

Come and Join a Thriving Fast-Growing Commercial Fiction Publisher

Shouting out nationwide for editorial talent to join Boldwood - an independent, global, multi-format, fiction publishing house founded in 2019 and the recipient of the IPA 2020 Newcomer Award.

After a successful first full year of trading, Boldwood Books is now looking to further expand its team and is searching for someone with energy, entrepreneurial zeal and ambition to help build the business.

You will have proven editorial skills and be able to bring on board talented authors - both new and established - and work with them over multiple books to build their brand and readership globally across all formats: ebook, audio and print. You will have experience across the main commercial fiction genres and be able to illustrate smart selection judgement and an ability to bring titles to market energetically and successfully.

You will feel comfortable in a commercial environment and have a proven understanding and experience of social media marketing and online advertising, relishing the use of data and trend analysis to maximise opportunities for the business.

If you are attracted by the thought of contributing to a fast-growing global company, are not afraid of rolling up your sleeves and getting stuck in, and are highly organised, this role could be for you.

We welcome applications from candidates who are currently at commissioning editor level or above and from anywhere in the UK to join our federation of team members who are based nationwide. This is a home-based role and the salary will be commensurate with experience.

Please apply to recruitment@boldwoodbooks.com by midnight Friday 21st May with a covering letter and CV.
